

As a citizen who does not like to have their home life disrupted by telemarketers, I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. To date Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my homelife tremendously. This has been most effective in that this law has decreased our calls by 4 fold. If any thing please strengthen the law.
With all sincerity,
Dr. Terry Dean